Experimental Finance 2022

Bonn, June 20-22

The Cluster of Excellence EconTribute: Markets and Policy and the Society for Experimental Finance (SEF) would like to invite you to the Experimental Finance 2022 conference in Bonn, Germany. The conference also serves as the 12th annual meeting of the Society for Experimental Finance.

Keynote Speakers:

Samuel Hartzmark (Booth School of Business, University of Chicago)

Michèle Tertilt (University of Mannheim)

Venue:

Collegium Leoninum, Bonn (Germany)

Paper submission and deadline:

We invite you to submit full papers or extended abstracts (with a minimum of 1000 words) using experimental methods covering all areas of finance broadly defined (please only submit when you have already collected your data).

For paper and abstract submission, see the SEF website: <https://www.experimentalfinance.org/>.

The deadline for submissions is March 15. Authors of accepted papers will be notified by mid-April 2022.

We also invite all junior scientists to apply for the Vernon L. Smith Young Talent Award in Experimental Finance for the best conference paper. This prize is awarded by the SEF and Chapman University and amounts to 8,000 USD. See the conference website for details on the application.

We will also organize a summer school for junior researchers in experimental finance from June 18 to 19. For more information about the summer school, please see the SEF website.

Organizers:

Zwetelina Iliewa (University of Bonn)

Christine Laudenbach (Leibniz Institute for Financial Research SAFE)

Christian König gen. Kersting (University of Innsbruck)
